

A traditional building converted into a hotel with chic&basic's individual style.

General description:

Located on one of the prettiest canals, called Herengracht, in Amsterdam, in the Jordaan neighbourhood, it embodies complete freshness and has one aim in mind: that you're comfortable and you enjoy your time in the city as much as possible. A traditional building converted into a hotel with chic&basic's individual style. The rooms are spread over three floors in three adjoining buildings. You'll experience the thrilling emotions of the city with chic&basic Amsterdam.

Prices: from €100 to €180 (Rates may vary during special dates.)

Rooms:

26 rooms.

You get to choose the colour. The headboard illuminates the room in different colours: red for passion, green for hope or blue to relax. We have rooms with or without a view onto the street that are full of natural light, the peaceful canal being your backdrop. The difference between the rooms is not only to do with size, but also the views onto the Herengracht canal. The rooms come equipped with a digital television, internet access, air conditioning and heating.

Room types: XL double, L double, M double and S single rooms.

Location:

Chic&basic Amsterdam is located in the Jordaan neighbourhood, which used to be an exclusive residential area. Jordaan is now full of cafés, bars and small charming restaurants. You'll find a large number of buildings that represent the typical architecture of the city to perfection just a stone's throw away from the hotel. Very central places and important sights such as the Centraal Station and Dam Square are just a 10-minute walk away from the hotel.
